

A very busy last week of Term 2, 2022.

TPS Ambassadors #soproud

Victor and Victrix Ladorum: Athletics

Neo Tongogara (Yr 5) and Siphosethu Banda (Yr 4) picking up many certificates in Final Assembly; showing how they earned these trophies.

Our dancers performed so well in assembly.
Thank-you Mrs Karim. Well done!

Our Little Ants!

A visit to Ms Mfula, just to check that she is okay 😊

Our Little Ants!

“Eddie the Penguin Saves The World” was an incredibly inspirational production with a powerful message. Well done TPS!

Thank-you for all the support with our EY and KS1 Play. Staff and pupils have worked so hard to make it a success. We look forward to the KS2 Play in T3. The creative arts are so strong at TPS! Thank-you to teachers; Ms Roomer, Miss Claire, Mrs M'hango, Ms Mfula, Mrs Goatley, Mrs Ludick and Mr Mbewe. Furthermore, thanks to the teaching assistants, Miss Vivian, Miss Nancy, Ms Kauzi and Miss Aimee.

Final Assembly: Such a huge celebration and so many certificates! Thanks Coach Nkumbu, the certificates were beautifully made.

All the very best of luck to Freddie and Olivia . We know that you will be back for holidays; farewell.

Thank you to our TPS KS2
Staff and TC pupils.

Farewell to George and
Oscar, we will miss you!
Luckily, they will be back in the holidays.

“Champions for Change” year 5 learns how to campaign and vote.

Quiddich anyone...?

School Improvements: We have a permanent sign here now and the Reception class road will be done over the holidays.

The most influence that you have as part of being the Head of TPS is having the keys to the resource cupboard! Miss L hands over “the all-important keys” to Mrs Keevil.

Pizza and a movie anyone? Ms. Millers group enjoying the rewards of their hard work.

TPS Family,
Finally, I would like to say a huge thank-you for my farewell, and my gifts. It was a beautiful evening, that meant so much to me. Furthermore, thank-you for all the support over the 6 years, 7 months that I have been here. If ever you are in Harare, everyone knows where Chisi is, so please pop in. I look forward to watching TPS grow and develop under its new leadership and pray that you stay safe.

Have a wonderful weekend!
Many thanks for your support, Miss L
